fouse Passes the Bill Rescheduling the Money Order System.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The Hous this afternoon passed the bill coming from the joint combmittee appointed to partments, and meant to improve the method of accounting in the Post-Office Department.

The bill abolishes the postal note and reduces the schedule of rates for money orders approximately to the scale of fees charged by express companies.

To the Postmaster-General is given authority to designate offices for the issue of money orders up to $5. All money orders unpaid for one year are covered into the Treasury, The money-order certificates contain a device designed to facilitate the settlement of postmasters' accounts.

The certificates of deposits of postmasters go direct to the Sixth Auditor, instead of, as now, to the Third Postmaster-General. The act takes effect Jan. 1, 1894. partments, and meant to improve the
